SECTION II

RISK FACTORS

An investment in equity involves a high degree of risk. Investors should carefully consider all the information in this Offer Document, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in our equity shares. Any of the following risks as well as other risks and uncertainties discussed in this Offer Document could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and could cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline, which could result in the loss of all or part of your investment. In addition, the risks set out in this Offer Document may not be exhaustive and additional risks and uncertainties, not presently known to us, or which we currently deem immaterial, may arise or become material in the future. Unless otherwise stated in the relevant risk factors set forth below, we are not in a position to specify or quantify the financial or other risks mentioned herein.

The Draft Prospectus also contains forward looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in the Draft Prospectus.

Materiality

The Risk factors have been determined on the basis of their materiality. The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality.

- Some events may not be material individually but may be found material collectively.
- Some events may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively.
- Some events may not be material at present but may be having material impact in the future

Note:

The risk factors are disclosed as envisaged by the management along with the proposals to address the risk if any. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial implication of any of the risks described in this section.

In this Offer Document, any discrepancies in any table between total and the sums of the amount listed are due to rounding off. Any percentage amounts, as set forth in "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in this Offer Document unless otherwise indicated, has been calculated on the basis of the amount disclosed in the our restated financial statements prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP.

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS:

1. The seeds business is highly seasonal and such seasonality may affect our operating results and cash flow of our Company.

Our business is seasonal in nature. Both raw material supplies and sales are seasonal, as our business is influenced by the traditional crop seasons in India. In India, majority of the farmers depend on monsoon for cultivation. Rainfall usually occurs during Kharif season and hence, the timing and seasonality of rainfall has an impact on the business of our Company. Thus, we are subject to seasonal factors, which make our operational results very unpredictable.

We recognize revenues only upon the sale of our products. Empirically, the revenues recorded during planting and harvesting seasons are lower compared to revenues recorded during the periods following such seasons. During periods of lower sales activities, we continue to incur substantial operating expenses, but our revenues remain usually lower. Due to the inherent seasonality of our business, results of one reporting period may not be necessarily comparable with preceding or succeeding reporting periods. Sometimes, even if there is a slight change in timing of rain fall, the sales will get deferred from one reporting period to another reporting period. The sales that were supposed to take place during one financial year may get added to sales of the next financial year and therefore results of even full financial year may not necessarily be comparable to the other financial year.

2. We are heavily dependent on the success of our Research and Development (R & D) and the failure to develop new and improved products could adversely affect our business.

Our success depends heavily on our ability to continue developing new products. Seed R&D covers a broad technological platform and technological advances are frequent, rapid and complex. We are heavily dependent on R & D procedures for making hybrid seeds and research seeds, depending on the demand. Thus all our activities are dependent on R & D activities carried out in the R & D process can hamper our production and lead to wastage of time and resources.

Our Company incurred ₹ 75.55 lakhs, ₹ 79.78 lakhs and ₹ 63.25 lakhs for the period/year ended on October 31, 2017, March 31, 2017 and March 31, 2016 respectively on R & D expenses, which accounted for 4.77%, 3.25% and 3.32% of our total revenue for the period/year ended on October 31, 2017, March 31, 2017 and March 31, 2016 respectively.

Time taken in R & D activities is very long especially for Germplasm in open pollination. R & D process involves the application of high level of technology and machinery. This involves setting up and maintenance expense of machinery and other technological equipment. Further we cannot assure that we shall make enhanced R&D investments or continue the current level of R&D investments in our business, or that our investment will yield satisfactory results in terms of new and improved products, or will yield any results at all because of the fact that, R & D involve huge level of innovation which is to be constantly monitored at and adopted in the process to achieve the desired market output and major innovations further add to cost of production because non adoption of the innovations will leave the Company at a back front.

3. Our Company is involved in certain legal proceedings, which if determined against us, could adversely impact financial conditions.

Our Company is involved in certain legal proceedings. These legal proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication. Any adverse decision against our Company may adversely affect our financial condition. The summary of outstanding legal and other proceedings are given in the following table:

4. Certain qualifications have been noted by Peer Review Auditors in their report on the Restated Financial Statements for non provision for Gratuity Payment as required under the Payment of Gratuity Act 1972.

Our Peer Review Auditors have provided certain qualifications in their report on the Restated Financial Statements relating to the financial statements for our Company is as follows:

As per Accounting Standard- 15 (Employee Benefits) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the company is required to assess its gratuity liability each year on the basis of actuarial valuation and make provision for gratuity liability. However, company has not provided for gratuity liability in the financial statement and has not taken any actuarial valuation report. So we are not in position to provide effect in Restated financial statements and to that extent the profit & loss account of the company does not represent true & fair result of the company performance.

Our Company has not complied with accounting standards 15 and Section 4A of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, in the past. Although no show cause notice in respect of the same has been received by the Company till date. Any penalty imposed for such non-compliance could affect our financial conditions to that extent. In relation to gratuity we have not received any notice/communication from the relevant authority, for the previous defaults till date. Further, our Company has not obtain any insurance for its liability towards the payment for gratuity as prescribed under Section 4A of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 from prescribed insurer till date.

5. Some of our corporate records including certain secretarial records for transfer of Equity Shares and Change of name of our Company and certain forms in relation to years prior to 2005 are not traceable in the record of Registrar of Companies and Company as well.

We are unable to trace certain corporate secretarial record for transfer of Equity Shares executed prior to the fiscal year 2007 and other documents in relation to change of name of our Company and shifting of registered office including ROC forms prior to the year 2006. We cannot assure you that the filings were made in a timely manner and that we shall not be subject to penalties on this account. Further online filing of Roc Documents was initiated in the year 2006 and all forms prior to the said year were physically filed, hence certain of these forms could not be retrieved from Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) portal. We cannot further assure you that we will not be penalized by the relevant supervisory and regulatory authorities in India for not maintaining or executing such documents.

6. Our Company has not filed certain forms under the Companies Act with the RoC. If the authorities impose monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

We manage our internal compliance by monitoring and evaluating internal controls, and ensuring all relevant statutory and regulatory compliances. However, there can be no assurance that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls, in a timely manner or at all. For instance, few relevant Forms like Form 23 has not been filed in respect of the registration for shifting of registered office of our company from one city to another city has not been filed. Moreover, certain e-forms have been filed beyond the maximum prescribe time under the Companies Act. Although no show cause notice have been issued against our Company till date in respect of above, in the event of any cognizance being taken by the concerned authorities in respect of above, penal actions may be taken against our Company and its directors, in such event the financials of our Company and our directors may be adversely affected.

7. Our business requires high inventory levels. Our production cycle is also long. Our failure to accurately forecast and manage inventory could result in an unexpected shortfall and/or surplus of products, which could adversely affect our business.

We are engaged in the business of hybrid seeds which requires considerable amount of time. Many a times, the desired breed of hybrid/research seed is obtained even at 5th to 6th generation where each generation represents a complete crop cycle.

An accurate forecast of demand for any product is required beforehand because an inaccurate forecast may result in an over-supply of products, which may increase costs, negatively impact our cash flow, erode margins substantially and ultimately necessitate write-offs of inventory.

Any of the aforesaid circumstances could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. We monitor our inventory levels based on our own projections of future demand. Also, considering the time required to produce commercial quantities of our products, we need to take production decisions well in advance of sales.

8. We do not own the premises in which our registered office is located and the same are on lease arrangement. Any termination of such lease/license and/or non-renewal thereof and attachment by lender could adversely affect our operations.

We do not own the premises at which our Registered Office is situated. Our Promoter and Managing Director Mr. Jagdish Ajudia has given the office premises to be used as the registered office of our Company. Though we have entered in to Lease Agreement with Mr. Jagdish Ajudia, we cannot assure you that we will own, or have the right to occupy, this premises in the future, or that we will be able to continue with the uninterrupted use of this premise in case of failure to comply with any of the terms and conditions of agreement, which may impair our operations and adversely affect our financial condition. For further details of properties please refer to the section titled "Our Business" beginning on page no. 70 of this Draft Prospectus.

9. Some of the agreements entered into by us with respect to our Registered Office, R & D Facilities, other leasehold/leave and license premises and contract farming agreements for seed cultivation are not adequately stamped and registered, resulting in making them inadmissible as evidence in legal proceedings. Any potential dispute vis-à-vis the said premises and our non-compliance of local laws relating to stamp duty and registration may adversely impact the continuance of our activity from such premises.

Some of the agreements entered into by us with respect to our Registered Office, R & D Facilities, other leasehold/leave and license premises and contract farming agreements for seed cultivation are not adequately and properly stamped and registered. The effect of improper and inadequate stamping is that the document is not admissible as evidence in legal proceedings and parties to that agreement may not be able to legally enforce the same, except after paying a penalty for inadequate and impropers stamping. The effect of non-registration, in certain cases, is to make the document inadmissible in legal proceedings. Any potential dispute vis-à-vis the said premises and our noncompliance of local laws relating to stamp duty and registration may adversely impact the continuance of our activity from such premises.

10. Our indebtedness and the conditions and restrictions imposed by our financing and other agreements could adversely affect our ability to conduct our business and operations.

We are bound by restrictive and other covenants in our facility agreements with lender, including but not limited to, restrictions on the utilization of the loan for certain specified purposes with respect to change in capital structure, Board of Directors, formulation of any scheme of amalgamation and reconstruction etc, timely provision of information and documents, timely creation of security, obtaining prior consent from existing lenders, maintenance of financial ratios and obtaining prior written approval from the appropriate lender for various corporate actions. If we are not in compliance with certain of these covenants and are unable to obtain waivers from all of our lenders, our lenders may accelerate the repayment schedules. Subsequently, if we are unable to pay our debt, affected lenders could also proceed against any collateral granted to them to secure such indebtedness.

Furthermore, these covenant defaults can result in cross-defaults in our future debt financing agreements. If our lenders accelerate the repayment of our borrowings, we cannot assure you that we will have sufficient assets to repay amounts outstanding under our loan agreements or continue our business.

We have obtained a substantial amount of indebtedness which could adversely affect our financial condition. As on October 31, 2017, our outstanding secured working capital and cash credit loan from Dena Bank is of ₹ 496.27 lakh. In addition, we may require to avail additional indebtedness in the future in the form of secured or unsecured loan which our lender may not agree or sanctioned the requisite amount in future. In such cases, our financial conditions will be significantly affected and as a result it may also affect business operations.

11. Our Promoter and promoter group have given guarantees in relation to working capital facilities provided to us, which if revoked may require alternative guarantees, repayment of amounts due or termination of the facilities.

Our Promoter and Managing Director Mr. Jagdish Ajudia and our Whole-Time Director Mrs. Maltiben Ajudia have given personal guarantees and our Promoter and Managing Director Mr. Jagdish Ajudia has offered his properties as Security in relation to working capital facilities provided to us by Dena Bank. The facilities sanctioned (Working Capital and Cash Credit) amounts to ₹ 475 lakhs. In the event that any of these guarantees/ securities is revoked, the lenders for such facilities may require alternate guarantees, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or even terminate such facilities. We may not be successful in procuring guarantees and securities satisfactory to the lenders, and as a result may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which could significantly affect our financial condition and cash flows.

12. Our business requires us to obtain and renew certain registrations, licenses and permits from government and regulatory authorities and the failure to obtain and renew or non receipt of them in a timely manner may adversely affect our business operations.

We require certain statutory and regulatory permits, licenses and approvals etc. to operate our business. We believe that we have obtained all the requisite permits and licenses etc. which are adequate to run our business. If we fail to maintain such registrations and licenses or comply with applicable conditions, then such respective regulatory can impose fine on our company or suspension and/or cancellation the approval/licenses which may affect our business adversely.

Some of the permits, licenses and approvals etc. are granted for a fixed period of time and may expire and for which we may have to make an application for obtaining the approval or its renewal. Failure to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits or approvals in time may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business. Moreover, there can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue or renew any of such permits or approvals in time or at all. Further, certain statutory and regulatory may put certain terms and conditions, which are required to be complied with by us. Any default by our Company in complying with the same, may result in inter alia the cancellation of such licenses, consents, authorizations and/or registrations, which may adversely affect our operations.

Many of the Licenses and approvals in the name of Indo Us Bio-Tech Private Limited; the same are required to be updated/ changed with various government authorities. Our Company is taking necessary steps in this regards.

For more information about the licenses required in our business and the licenses and approvals please refer section "Government and other statutory approvals" appearing on page no. 208 of this Draft Prospectus.

13. The Company is dependent on few numbers of customers and suppliers for sales and purchase from top 10 customers and suppliers. Loss of any of these large customer and supplier may affect our revenues and profitability.

Our top ten customers contribute 31.68% and 21.02% of our total sales for the period ended October 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017 respectively. Out of which 12.53% was contributed by one of our group entity – "Patel Beej Nigam" for the period ended March 31, 2017.

Further, our top ten suppliers delivered 54.99% and 34.95% of the total materials purchased for the period ended October 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017 respectively. Out of which our group entities – "Indo-Us Agriseeds Private Limited" and "Patel Beej Nigam" have delivered 39.19% of total materials purchased for the period ended October 31, 2017 and "Indo-Us Agriseeds Private Limited" has delivered 28.10% of total materials purchased for the period ended March 31, 2017.

The loss of any of these large customers or suppliers may affect our revenue and profitability.

14. Our Company faces competition from certified seed players. Our failure to effectively compete may reduce our profitability and results of operations.

Increased competition may result in decreased demand or lower prices for our products. Our failure to compete effectively could reduce our profitability and in turn our results of operations. We face substantial competition due to technological advances by our competitors in various facets of the agri-inputs business especially certified seed players. Multinational corporations invest huge amounts of money and considerable resources on Research and Development and technology and are thus able to come out with very effective and highly improved versions of hybrids. Hence, these types of technological advances force us to face substantial competition. Further, the introduction of biotechnology has resulted in the entry of various agro-input companies into the seed industry, thus fostering intense competition in the industry. The period for developing and commercializing a hybrid can run into several years. If a competitor introduces a product more suited to farmer needs, it could take a long period for us to develop a suitably competing product, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Some of our competitors may have, or are subsidiaries of large international corporations that have, significantly greater resources than those available to us. If we are unable to compete effectively, including in terms of pricing or providing quality products, our market share may decline, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

15. Weather conditions, crop diseases and pest attacks could adversely affect the production of our seed products, as well as the demand for our seed products, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our seed production activities and the Indian seeds industry are subject to substantially all the risks faced by the agriculture industry in India. Crop yields depend significantly on the absence of any crop disease or pest attacks and favourable weather conditions such as adequate rainfall and temperature, which vary from location to location. Adverse weather conditions such as windstorms, flood, drought or frost may cause crop failures and reduce harvests, which may adversely affect our operations. However, results of changes in weather and climatic conditions are difficult to predict and may affect crop planning and timing. In addition to factors such as soil quality and the use of fertilisers, weather conditions may also affect the presence of diseases and pests. Any of these factors may adversely affect our production of seeds. Furthermore, if crop diseases and pests develop resistance to our products, this could adversely affect our Seed Growing Farmers' crop yields.

Additionally, we cannot assure you that adverse weather patterns in the future or potential crop diseases will not affect our ability to produce the desired quality or quantity of products to meet demand and in turn, their pricing. Any of these factors, or a combination thereof, can adversely affect the quality of our seeds, yield and inventory levels, could increase our cost of operations, strain our operating margins and reduce our operating revenue, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

16. Our entire production facility is located in the state of Gujarat. Further we generate our major sales from our operations in certain geographical regions especially Gujarat, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh. Any adverse developments affecting our operations in these regions could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.

Our Company currently carries on its activities only in the state of Gujarat. Further our major customer base is concentrated in certain regions in the state of Gujarat, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh. Such geographical concentration of our business in these regions heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic and demographic changes in these regions which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. We may not be able to leverage our experience in regions of Gujarat, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh to expand our operations in other parts of India and overseas markets. Factors such as competition, culture, regulatory regimes, business practices and customs, industry needs, transportation, in other markets where we may expand our operations may differ from those in Gujarat, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh, and our experience in these places may not be applicable to other markets. In addition, as we enter new markets and geographical areas, we are likely to compete not only with national and international players, but also local players who might have an established local presence, are more familiar with local regulations, business practices and industry needs, have stronger relationships with local contractors, farmers, relevant government authorities, and who are in a stronger financial position than us, all of which may give them a competitive advantage over us.

Our inability to expand into areas outside our present market may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. While our management believes that the Company has requisite expertise and vision to grow and mark its presence in other markets going forward, investors should consider our business and prospects in light of the risks, losses and challenges faced by us and should not rely on our results of operations for any prior periods as an indication of our future performance.

17. Our inability to predict accurately the demand for our products and to manage our production and inventory levels could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We sell our seed products primarily to distributors, who in turn sell the products primarily to farmers, who are our end consumers. We monitor our inventory levels at different stages of our supply chain based on our own estimates of future demand for our products. Because of the length of time necessary to produce commercial quantities of seeds, we are typically required to make production decisions well in advance of sales. Our end consumers generally make purchasing decisions for our products based on market prices, economic and weather or climatic conditions and certain other factors that we or our distributors may not be able to anticipate accurately in advance.

Demand for our products may also be affected by factors such as irrigation facilities, availability of credit, overall agricultural production and the like. Any negative change in preferences of our end consumers for our products could result in reduced demand for our products and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

18. The prices of hybrid seeds produced by us are costlier than the natural seed thus affecting our revenue.

The hybrid seeds produced by us are costlier than the natural seeds and there is steep increase in the prices of hybrid seeds as compared with that of natural seeds. The increased prices are a result of huge R&D involved, expert costs and processing costs. The development process for new varieties of seeds is lengthy and costly. On an average, it takes three to five years, depending on the crop, for a proprietary hybrid to reach commercial viability. Despite investments in this area, our R&D efforts may not result in the discovery or successful development of new products.

19. Lack of awareness and knowledge among farmers is the basic reason for them not opting for hybrid seeds and choosing naturally grown seeds over them which could affect our financial performance.

All the major developments and the inventions are not able to reach the people at the grassroot level like farmers, who are the main human resource for agriculture, thus lack of knowledge and awareness among them is the basic reason for them not opting for hybrid seeds and choosing naturally grown seeds over them. We undertake awareness initiative like Farmer Welfare Programme, Krishi Mela etc. to spread awareness about our products.

20. Our Company does not have long-term agreements with any of land vendors for farm lands on which we undertake seed multiplication and is subject to uncertainties in availability which could hamper production, decrease sales and negatively affect its operating results.

We do not have any long term agreements with any of land vendors for farm lands on which we undertake seed multiplication. As a result, our vendors can terminate their relationships with us due to a change in preference or any other reason upon relatively short notice, which could materially and adversely impact our business. Consequently, our revenue may be subject to variability in case production process gets hampered due to non availability of farm land.

21. The use of pesticides and other hazardous substance in our operations may lead to loss of nutrients in the seeds produced and also may lead to environmental damage and result in increased costs.

Hybrid seed production involves high usage of pesticides and other hazardous substance. We may also have to pay for the costs or damages associated with the improper application, accidental release or the use or misuse of these substances. In these cases, payment of costs or damages could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Hybrid seed production involve high usage of pesticides and other hazardous substance, using pesticides in such an increased quantity could lead to loss of nutrients in the seeds which make them less attractive from that of organic seeds produced.

22. Our inability to maintain the stability of our distribution network and attract additional high quality dealers may have an adverse affect on our results of operations and financial condition.

The challenge in the agri-inputs business lies in reaching a geographically dispersed end-user at the right time at the right place with the right product. We rely on our distribution network and dealerships to reach the end customer, that is the farmer, and distribute market and sell our agri-input products in each of the regions in which we operate. Competition for seed and other agri-inputs dealers is intense. Hence, our business is dependent on maintaining good relationships with our distributors and dealers and ensuring that our distributors and dealers find our products to be commercially remunerative and have continuing demand from farmers. Furthermore, our growth as a business depends on our ability to attract additional high-quality dealerships to our distribution network. There can be no assurance that our current distributors and dealers will continue to do business with us, or that we can continue to attract additional distributors and dealers to our network. If we do not succeed in maintaining the stability of our distribution network and attracting additional high-quality dealers to our distribution network, our market share may decline and our products may not reach the end customers, materially adversely affecting our results of operations and financial condition.

23. Our ability to deliver our products in a timely manner is crucial to our business and results of operations.

Availability of the seed variety before crop season is crucial for our business. Crop yields depend significantly on the absence of any crop disease or pest attacks and favourable weather conditions such as adequate rainfall and temperature. Adverse weather conditions such as windstorms, flood, drought or frost may cause crop failures and reduce harvests, which may adversely affect our operations. However, results of changes in weather and climatic conditions are difficult to predict and may affect crop planning and timing. In addition to factors such as soil quality and the use of fertilisers, weather conditions may also affect the presence of diseases and pests. Any of these factors may adversely affect our production of seeds. We also rely on third party transporters for transportation and delivery of our products. Factors such as unavailability of transport services, damage or loss of goods in transit, strikes, natural disasters etc. can interrupt the delivery of our products and affect our business and results of operations.

24. Product defects could adversely affect our business.

Although seeds undergo extensive quality checks before they are processed, they may still contain defective or undesired characteristics that may be difficult to detect, with the available technology and tools at our dominion, prior to their sale and use. Since our seeds are used by farmers, any quality defects therein would directly affect the earnings of the farmer. If defective or contaminated seeds are sold to a large number of farmers or over a geographically wide area, it may lead to a large-scale crop failure thus substantially increasing our potential liability for claims. The proper usage of seeds and adherence to recommended farm practices as well as the environment during crop period are all beyond our control once we sell the seed to our customer. Irrespective of the quality of the seeds, farmers may claim poor crop yields in one or more seasons as resulting from alleged seed defects, which may not exist or may be exaggerated, and seek to claim damages/compensation from us on that ground. Further, in order to attain the desired levels of crop yield, certain precautions like utilization of the soil application, proper application of fertilizers, timely application of pesticides, timely supply of water etc. have to be followed.

Moreover, weather conditions must be favourable. In the event of any errors on the part of the farmers, or adverse weather conditions, they may claim defects in the quality of the seed. However, ascertained product defects can not be determined in percentage terms though we face claims for product defects. We believe that our processing plants/facilities comply in all material respects with all applicable laws and regulations; we cannot assure that use of our products will not expose us to costly and time-consuming litigations/claims and lead to negative publicity about the quality of our products, further affecting our sales and performance. Any of the aforesaid factors would have a material adverse effect on business, financial condition and results of operations.

25. There may be potential conflicts of interest if our Promoter or Directors are involved in any business activities that compete with or are in the same line of activity as our business operations.

Our Group Companies/entities namely “Indo-US Agriseeds Private Limited”, “Shree Patel Beej Nigam Junagadh (Partnership Firm)”, “Patel Beej Nigam (Proprietor Mr. Jagdishbhai Devjibhai Ajudiya)” and “Jagdishbhai Devjibhai Ajudiya HUF”, are involved in similar line of Business. Also our Company has entered into various transactions with our Group Companies/entities and will continue to do so in future.

For detailed information for our transaction with group Companies please refer to Annexure – 34 of Restated financial Statement under chapter titled “Auditors Report And Financial Information of our Company” beginning on page no. 149 of this Draft Prospectus. Further, we have not entered into any non-compete agreement with our said entity. We cannot assure you that our Promoter and Directors who have common interest in said entities will not favour the interest of the said entity. Any such present and future conflicts could have a material effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition which may affect our profitability and results of operations.

26. We require high working capital for our smooth day to day operations of business and any discontinuance or our inability to acquire adequate working capital timely and on favorable terms may have an adverse effect on our operations, profitability and growth prospects.

The net working capital requirement as on as on March 31, 2017 is ₹ 699.37 Lakhs as against the ₹ 626.06 lakhs as on March 31, 2016. The Net working Capital is estimated to be ₹ 912.89 Lakh as on March 31, 2018 and projected to be ₹ 1417.19 Lakh as on March 31, 2019. The net incremental working capital required as at March 31, 2019 is ₹ 504.30 Lakh. We operate in a working capital intense industry therefore our business demands substantial funds towards working capital requirements. In case there are insufficient cash flows to meet our working capital requirement or we are unable to arrange the same from other sources or there are delays in disbursement of arranged funds, or we are unable to procure funds on favorable terms, at a future date, it may result into our inability to finance our working capital needs on a timely basis which may have an adverse effect on our operations, profitability and growth prospects.

27. Our management will have flexibility in applying the Proceeds of the Issue and the deployment of the Proceeds is not subject to any monitoring by any independent agency. The purposes for which the Proceeds of the Issue are to be utilized are based on management estimates and have not been appraised by any banks or financial institutions.

We intend to use the Proceeds of the Issue for the purposes described in “Objects of the Issue” on page no. 55 of this Draft Prospectus. Our management may revise estimated costs, fund requirements and deployment schedule owing to factors relating to our business and operations and external factors which may not be within the control of our management. The utilization of the Proceeds of the Issue and other financings will be monitored only by the Audit Committee of the Board and is not subject to any monitoring by any independent agency. Further, pending utilization of the Proceeds of the Issue, we intend to deposit the Net Proceeds only in scheduled commercial banks included in the Second Schedule of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Our funding requirements and the deployment of the Proceeds of the Issue are based on management estimates and have not been appraised by any banks or financial institutions. In view of the highly competitive nature of the industry in which we operate, we may have to revise our management estimates from time to time and, consequently, our funding requirements may also change.

28. We have not identified any alternate source of raising the funds required for our ‘Objects of the Issue’. Any shortfall in raising / meeting the same could adversely affect our growth plans, operations and financial performance.

Our Company has not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds can adversely affect our growth plan and profitability. The delay/shortfall in receiving these proceeds may require us to borrow the funds on unfavorable terms, both of which scenarios may affect the business operation and financial performance of the company.

29. There is no monitoring agency appointed by Our Company and the deployment of funds are at the discretion of our Management and our Board of Directors, though it shall be monitored by our Audit Committee.

As per SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2009, as amended, appointment of monitoring agency is required only for Issue size above ₹ 10,000 Lakh. Hence, we have not appointed any monitoring agency to monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds. However, as per the Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 the Audit Committee of our Company would be monitoring the utilization of the Issue Proceeds.

30. We have significant ongoing funding requirements and may not be able to raise additional capital in the future. As a result we may not be able to respond to business opportunities, challenges or unforeseen circumstances.

Our major fund based financial assistance has been sanctioned by the bank, i.e. Dena Bank on the security of assets. The Company is dependent on the Dena Bank for its Working Capital requirement and any default under such arrangement with such lender may create problem for operation of the Company, which may affect the financial stability of the Company. At the same time this may result into difficulty in arranging for funds for re-payment and may also affect the financial position of the Company. If we are unable in the future to generate sufficient cash flow from operations or borrow the necessary capital to fund our future capital expenditures, we will be forced to limit our growth. In addition, we may not be able to service our existing customers or to acquire new customers. The inability to raise additional capital on acceptable terms could have a effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

For further details of our loans, Please refer section titled “Indebtedness” under the chapter titled “Business Overview” beginning on Page no. 70 of this Draft Prospectus.

31. In addition to normal remuneration, other benefits and reimbursement of expenses some of our Directors (including our Promoter) are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company.

Some of our Directors (including our Promoter) are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company, in addition to normal remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses.

We cannot assure you that our Promoter and Directors would always exercise their rights as Shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. As a result, our Promoter and Directors will continue to exercise significant control over our Company, including being able to control the composition of our board of directors and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting, and our other Shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. Our Promoter and Directors may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with our best interests or the interests of other minority Shareholders, such as actions with respect to future capital raising or acquisitions. We cannot assure you that our Promoter and Directors will always act to resolve any conflicts of interest in our favour, thereby adversely affecting our business and results of operations and prospect.

32. Our ability to attract, train and retain executives and other qualified employees is critical to our business, results of operations and future growth.

Our business and future growth is substantially dependent on the continued services and performance of our key executives, senior management and skilled personnel, especially personnel with experience in our industry. In particular, our Managing Director, Mr. Jagdish Ajudia and other senior management team are critical to the overall management of our Company. Their inputs and experience are also valuable for the development of our services, our work culture and the strategic direction taken by our Company. Further, our business depends upon our employees for its successful execution. The specialized skills we require, especially for our verticals of our research and development activities. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replaced personnel when skilled personnel terminate their employment with our Company. Our ability to compete effectively depends on our ability to attract new employees and to retain and motivate our existing employees. We may be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting skilled employees that our business requires. If we do not succeed in attracting well-qualified employees or retaining or motivating existing employees, our business and prospects for growth could be adversely affected.

33. We have entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future.

Our Company has entered into certain transactions with our related parties. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on the arms-length basis, there can be no assurance that we could not have been achieved more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we will enter into related party transactions in the future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operation.

For details on the transactions entered by us, please refer to “Related Party Transactions” beginning on page no. 147 of this Draft Prospectus.

34. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against certain operating hazards and this may have a material adverse effect on our business.

We are insured for a number of the risks associated with our several businesses, such as insurance cover against loss or damage by fire, earthquake, theft etc. We believe we have got our assets adequately insured; however there can be no assurance that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honored fully, in part or on time, to cover all material losses. To the extent that we suffer any loss or damage that is not covered by insurance or exceeds our insurance coverage, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected.

35. We have experienced negative cash flows in previous years / periods. Any operating losses or negative cash flows in the future could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Our Company had negative cash flows from our operating activities, investing activities as well as financing activities in the previous years as per the Restated Financial Statements and the same are summarized as under.

Particulars	For the year ended on					For the Period Ended on October 31, 2017

36. We are exposed to the risk of delays or non-payment by our clients and other counterparties, which may also result in cash flow mismatches.

We are exposed to counterparty credit risk in the usual course of our business dealings with our clients or other counterparties who may delay or fail to make payments or perform their other contractual obligations. The financial condition of our clients, business partners, suppliers and other counterparties may be affected by the performance of their business which may be impacted by several factors including general economic conditions. We cannot assure you of the continued viability of our counterparties or that we will accurately assess their creditworthiness. We also cannot assure you that we will be able to collect the whole or any part of any overdue payments. Any material non-payment or non-performance by our clients, business partners, suppliers or other counterparties could affect our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

37. We have issued Equity Shares in the last twelve months, the price of which is lower than the Issue Price.

Our Company has made allotment of 19,35,526 bonus equity shares on December 4, 2017 i.e. in the last twelve months. For further details of Equity Shares issued, please refer to chapter titled, 'Capital Structure' beginning on page no. 40 of this Draft Prospectus.

38. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

Although in the past we have paid dividends, our future ability to pay dividends will depend on our earnings, financial condition and capital requirements. Dividends distributed by us will attract dividend distribution tax at rates applicable from time to time. There can be no assurance that we will generate sufficient income to cover the operating expenses and pay dividends to the shareholders. Our ability to pay dividends will also depend on our expansion plans. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and the future dividend policy will depend on the capital requirements and financing arrangements for the business plans, financial condition and results of operations.

39. Difficulties and uncertainties surrounding the implementation of a GST regime in India may adversely affect our business strategy.

The GoI has implemented a comprehensive GST regime which has combined taxes and levies by the central and state governments into a unified indirect tax on the manufacture, sale and consumption of goods and services at a national level. We expect the GST regime to benefit the inter-state movement of services which may lead to opportunities for growth of our business.

In addition, since the GST regime has been implemented, the impact, if any, that implementation of the GST regime will have on our tax liability and other related matters is uncertain. We cannot assure you that the GST regime will not result in levy of certain additional taxes. In the event GST increases our tax liability, our financial condition and results of operations could be affected. In respect of our business, we may experience an increase in our tax liabilities. If these additional taxation expenses are not reimbursed by our clients or if we are not able to obtain suitable relief from the tax authorities, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be affected. For further details of regulation applicable to us, refer chapter titled "Key Industrial Regulation and Policies" beginning on page no. 113 of this Draft Prospectus.

40. Our future funds requirements, in the form of fresh issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any fresh issue of shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favourable to the then existing shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt, then it may substantially increase our interest burden and decrease our cash flows, thus prejudicially affecting our profitability and ability to pay dividends to our shareholders.

41. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoter or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoter or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

However, the Indian economy may be adversely affected by factors such as adverse changes in liberalization policies, social disturbances, terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war, natural calamities or interest rates changes, which may also affect the microfinance industry. The value of global seed market has tripled since 2000 and reached US$ 54 billion in 2014.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE COOPERATION & FARMERS WELFARE

Seeds Overview

Seed is the most important and vital input for agricultural production. In fact, it is the most cost efficient means of increasing agricultural production and productivity. The efficacy of other agricultural inputs in enhancing productivity and production, such as fertilizers, pesticides and irrigation is largely determined by the quality of seed. Quality of seed accounts for twenty to twenty five percent of productivity. It is, therefore, important that quality seeds are made available to the farmers of the country. The Indian Seeds programme recognizes three generations of seeds, namely, breeder, foundation and certified seeds. The Department of Agriculture and Co-operation is implementing a Central Sector Scheme as 'Development and Strengthening of Infrastructure Facilities for Production and Distribution of Quality Seeds' since 2005-06 for the whole country. The objective of the ongoing scheme is to ensure production and multiplication of high yielding certified/quality seeds of all crops in sufficient quantities and make the seeds available to farmers, including those in remote areas, not easily accessible by rail/road on time and at affordable price.

Export of Seeds and Planting Materials

In order to encourage export of seeds, the procedure for export for seed has been considerably simplified. As per the current EXIM Policy, 2009-2014, exports of all seeds are free, except;

- Breeder or foundation or wild plants
- Breeder or foundation or wild plants
- onion, berseem, cashew, nux vomica, rubber, pepper cuttings, sandalwood, saffron, neem, forestry species, Red sanders, Russa Grass and tufts and Seeds of tufts.

The export of these seeds is restricted and is only allowed on case-to-case basis under licence issued by DGFT on the basis of the recommendations of EXIM Committee of Department of Agriculture and Cooperation.

Import of seeds and planting materials

In order to provide the best planting materials available in the world to the Indian farmer and to increase productivity, farm incomes and export earnings, New Policy on Seed Development, 1988 has been formulated. Import of seeds and planting materials are governed by New Policy on Seed Development, 1988. The provisions regarding import of seeds and planting material are:

- import of seeds/tubers/bulbs/cuttings/saplings of vegetables, flowers and fruits is allowed without a licence in accordance with import permit granted under Plant Quarantine Order, 2003 (PQ Order).
- Import of seeds, planting materials and living plants by ICAR, etc. is allowed without a licence in accordance with conditions specified by the Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Government of India;
- Import of seeds/tubers of potato, garlic, fennel, coriander, cumin, etc. is allowed in accordance with import permit granted under PQ Order, 2003 and amendments made thereunder.

Import of seeds of rye, barley, oat, maize, millet, jowar, bajra, ragi, other cereals, soybean, groundnut, linseed, palmnut, cotton, castor, sesamum, mustard, safflower, clover, jojoba, etc. is allowed without licence subject to the New Policy on Seed Development, 1988 and in accordance with import permit granted under PQ Order, 2003. A small quantity of seeds sought to be imported would be given to ICAR, or farms accredited by ICAR, for trial and evaluation for one crop season. On receipt of applications for commercial import, DAC would consider the trial/evaluation report on the performance of the seed and their resistance to seed/soil borne diseases. All importers have to make available a small specified quantity of the imported seeds to the ICAR at cost price for testing/accession to the gene bank of NBPGR.

The Department of Agriculture and Cooperation has revised the New Policy on Seed Development 1988 on 27.6.2011 to allow import of specified quantity of seeds of wheat and paddy initially for trial and evaluation purpose. Based on the results of trial for one crop season, the company may be allowed to import seeds of wheat and paddy for a period not exceeding two years subject to the conditions stipulated in the revised New Policy of Seed Development 1988.

The import of these seeds is restricted and is only allowed on case-to-case basis under licence issued by Plant Protection Adviser on the basis of the recommendations of EXIM Committee of Department of Agriculture and Cooperation. The EXIM Committee meets every month subject to tendency of proposals for import/export of seeds and planting material. Exporters/importers are required to submit 20 copies of applications for export/import in the prescribed formats. The minutes of the EXIM Committee are approved by Secretary (A&C) after which letters recommending exports/imports of seeds and planting material are sent to DGFT and PPA for necessary action.

We propose to meet the requirement of funds for the stated objects of the Issue from the IPO Proceeds. Hence, no amount is required to be raised through means other than the Issue Proceeds. GLOBAL SEED MARKET

The seed industry has witnessed a substantial change in the past century, with farmers re-lying on purchasing seeds from market with better traits rather than relying on seeds from previous season's harvest. Developments in seed technology have increased the momentum of the industry's growth, and the introduction of genetically modified crops has further boosted the seed market. The value of global seed market has tripled since 2000 and reached US$ 54 billion in 2014.

The global seed market is segmented into North America, Europe, Asia-Pacific, South America, and Africa by Geography. North America occupies the largest market share and together with Europe it constitutes 55% of the global seed market. Asia-Pacific is seen as the fastest growing segment with a CAGR of 7.9%, followed by South America during 2015-2020. China is the second biggest seed market in the world, right behind the United States. However, India also has a significant share of 4% in the global seed market

INDIAN SEED MARKET

The Indian seed industry, over the years, has evolved by adopting and innovating upon scientific advancements in variety development and quality seed production. The industry has grown at a rapid pace of 20.59% over the period 2010-2015 and reached ₹ 141.24 billion in 2015 on account of rapid adoption of Bt cotton hybrids, single cross corn hybrids and hybrid vegetables. Rising awareness among the farmers related to the benefits of using certified/ quality seeds has led to an increase in the demand for seeds over the past few years. This has resulted in an increasing willingness among the farmers to pay higher price for quality seeds.

A. Indian Cotton Seed Market

Cotton is one of the most cultivated crops in India, with great economic importance attached to it. The cotton seed market was valued at ₹ 24.86 billion in India in 2016. India is also the second largest producer of Cotton worldwide. Since 2002, Bt Cotton has steadily prevailed over India's Cotton fields raising overall cotton production. Today, over 90% of Cotton grown in India is cultivated by using Bt Cotton seeds. There are very few countries in Asia and Africa which allows commercial cultivation of GM crops and hence Cotton seed export has not been picked up in last decade. Now with more countries opening up for GM cultivation, there exists huge potential to export Cotton seeds from India.

B. Indian Hybrid Rice Seed Market

Government of India has not fixed any target for increasing acreage of hybrid rice in the country. However, efforts are being made to promote cultivation of hybrid rice through various crop development programmes such as National Food Security Mission (NFSM), Bringing Green Revolution to Eastern India (BGREI) and Rashtriya Krishi Vikas Yojana (RKVY). With private sector playing a major role in Hybridization of Rice, the hybrid rice seed market has touched more than 45 thousand metric tonnes volume sale in 2016. The growth in 2016 can be attributed to significant increase under Kharif acreage of rice due to abundant rainfall, after a consecutive two years of drought and growers shift from Inbred to Hybrid due to problems faced last year with OPV's.

C. Indian Maize Seed Market

Maize is one of the largest consumed commercial seed, accounting for ₹ 14.91 billion of revenue in 2016. The growth in maize is attributed to its increased use as livestock feed and in ethanol production. Presently, approximately 25% of maize is used as food grain, while remaining 75% is used to meet nonfood demand, viz. bio-fuels, poultryfeed, animal feed, brewing alcohol, starch based wet milling industries and other industrial uses.

However, the enhanced investment in maize by global seed companies would flow into India through technology transfer and Public-Private Partnerships in the next fifty years to develop maize.

D. Indian Fruits and Vegetables Seeds Market

Fruits & Vegetable Seed in India is being viewed as a high growth Industry. Most seeds normally remain viable for 2 or 3 years if stored under good conditions. Therefore, buy only from seed firm of known integrity. High yielding, high price seeds should have 90% germination. For germination of seeds adequate moisture, temperature and aeration are essential. The requirement of temperature for various fruits and vegetable seeds varies markedly. Some seeds do not germinate at low temperature while some others at high. Usually germination is optimum in between 400 F and 600 F. Seeds absorb moisture and swell and vital activities start. Respiration begins and energy is supplied and this requires oxygen. Aeration is essential to supply oxygen. If supply of water is more or over wet aeration is poor and may hinder in germination. The first eliminates organisms present on the surface of seeds. Calcium hypochlorite, mercuric chloride and bromide water may be used.

The second disinfectant eliminates organisms present within the seeds. For this hot water, formaldehyde and mercuric chloride are effective. In hot water treatment dry seeds are immersed in hot water 45 to 550 C for 10 to 15 minutes. The third treatment protectants are fungicides to protect seeds from soil fungi. Nursery soil should be drenched before sowing of seeds.

The vegetable seeds should be sown in nursery beds in lines at 1.5-2 cm. below surface soiled at a distance of 5-6 cm. The distance from line to line should be 10-15 cm. After sowing cover the seeds with sieved compost very lightly. The beds should be watered with a sprinkler. The above distance from plant to plant or row to row may be changed according to size of seeds, kind of vegetables and type of seedlings. Similarly the depth of covering with compost varies with the kind of seed. Very fine seeds may be dusted over the nursery bed. Covering of other seeds may be one to two times their minimum diameter. Over watering creates high humidity and poor aeration and contributes to “damping off” disease.

E. Indian Oil Seed Market

India's total oilseed production in MY 2017/18 is forecast to increase seven percent to 38.6 MMT, derived from 40 million hectares. Out year oilseed supplies will achieve an all-time high of 40.3 MMT. The forecast assumes a normal 2017 Southwest monsoon (June-September) season, near-normal oilseed yields (per five-year average), and market prices above Minimum Support Price (MSP). Over the last three years, an estimated two million hectares of traditional oilseed area was lost to dry weather conditions or to competing crops.

Oilmeal production will also rise by 10 percent to 17.2 MMT amid the increase in oilseed supply and anticipated meal demand. Demand for animal proteins will continue to increase along with India's growing economy and socio-economic changes. However, the availability of affordable feeds will continue to challenge India's livestock sectors. Assuming normal market conditions, Indian oilmeal exports in the out year are forecast to recover modestly from 1.4 MMT to 2.7 MMT. Strong domestic feed demand, international competition, and the rapid expansion of crushing in neighboring countries (former Indian meal markets) will limit Indian meal exports.

Edible oil imports are forecast to rise by five percent to 16.8 MMT. Despite the forecast production increase, domestic supplies will not be commensurate with India's ever-increasing demand for vegetable oil. India will continue to import vegetable oil to fill its 70-percent demand gap and India will remain the world's largest vegetable oil importer. India's growing population, rising disposable incomes, demand from an increasingly sophisticated consumer base (more awareness of health, food safety, hygiene) and institutional buyers will drive vegetable oil consumption.

F. India Pulse Market Update

With record planted acreage for 2017/18 and largely benign weather so far, India is at the threshold of harvesting a massive rabi pulse crop for the second season in a row. Despite the steep decline in domestic prices and general discontent among growers, pulses have been planted on 16.3 million (M) hectares (ha) (40 M acres) this season, up from 15.6 M ha (39 M acres) this time last year. Specifically, seeded area for chickpeas, the country's dominant pulse crop, has expanded to a new high of 10.6 M ha (26 M acres), up from 9.8 M ha (24 M acres) this time last year, followed at a distance by lentils at 1.7 M ha (4.2 M acres), and field peas at 1.2 M ha (2.9 M acres). Harvest should begin by mid-February and progress through March. In addition to chickpeas, lentils, and field peas, small quantities of moong and urad, as well as some minor pulses will be harvested. The production target for this rabi season is 14.15 M tonnes, of which chickpea is 9.75 M tonnes. On current estimation, the country is likely to witness harvest of anything between 8.5 and 9 M tonnes of chickpeas. Lentil production is likely to be 1.3 to 1.4 M tonnes, and field peas close to one million tonnes. The domestic market for various pulses is ruling at or below the minimum support price.

Once again, growers' price expectations are unlikely to be realized. The government procurement program of 2016/17 was not as effective as anticipated. A combination of a rebound in domestic harvest, and policy interventions in recent months has meant that pulse imports into the country has significantly slowed down. After imposing quantitative restrictions (QRs) on tur/arhar, moong, and urad in August, the government levied a 50% customs duty on yellow peas in November, and followed it up with a 30% customs duty on chickpeas and lentils in December. These measures have resulted in reducing imports to a trickle. December 2017 pulse imports were valued at $212 million US, sharply down from $510 million US exactly a year ago. According to government data, India's pulse imports from April to December 2017 were worth $2.7 billion US, down 10% from $3 billion US during a corresponding period in 2016. Arrivals during the first quarter of 2018 are expected to be limited. Despite import restrictions, domestic prices have not improved as anticipated. This has raised questions about the effectiveness of various intervention measures. Looking Ahead A silver lining in an otherwise murky skyline is that methyl bromide fumigation at the Indian discharge port has been extended by another six months, to June 2018. The QR imposed on tur (200,000 tonnes), as well as moong and urad (300,000 tonnes together), is valid until March 31, 2018. Given the existing low domestic prices, the government is most likely to extend the QR to the 2018/19 financial year. Weather risks in the weeks ahead are not ruled out. In three of the last five years, the country faced unseasonal rains and occasional hailstorms in March and April, which damaged crops including chickpeas. So, caution is warranted. The India Meteorological Department will come up with its southwest monsoon forecast in April. If La Niña conditions continue into the late spring and summer months, South Asia may experience above normal rainfall, a positive for pulse production. Whether pulse growers will continue to bet on the crop and plant large acreages once again in June/July (kharif season) is a matter of guesswork at this point in time. Much will depend on the government's price support operation and its success. Importantly, it must be recognized that Indian agriculture is fragile and vulnerable. At any point in time, the country is just one bad monsoon away from a major farm disaster. So, it would be prudent to keep the import window open and not alienate traditional overseas suppliers who stood by India in times of dire need. Pulse exports from India have opened up, but any notable success is unlikely in the short run. The world market is facing a glut situation and prices are rather low. The export parity for Indian pulses is weak. So, only very modest quantities will find overseas buyers. G. Chandrashekhar is a global agribusiness and commodities market specialist.

Indian Seed Market Trade

Being agriculture based country; India started to lose a large share of such exports over the past few years. Lack of appropriate policy reform in Indian seed sector can be one missing element, which are discouraging exporters and producers to engage more in export of fruits and vegetable seeds. It is also needed to see whether the bargaining positions of other countries have improved or they have taken any competitive advantage or market imperfections of India has increased in recent years. However, India's imports of the fruits and vegetable seeds have depicted a declining trend in 2016, when compared to 2015. This decline is reflected not only in quantity but also in value terms. The major countries exporting fruits and vegetable seeds to India in 2016 included Thailand, Egypt, Chile, United States and China, accounting 64% of the total imports of fruits and vegetable seeds, amounting to ₹ 4.16 billion in India. The Indian seeds market is anticipated to grow at a considerable CAGR rate due to improvement of seed replacement rate, production and distribution of quality seeds appropriate to agro-climatic zone at affordable prices along with a determined effort to address region specific constraints. Moreover, several factors, including increased subsidies and renewed government thrust on the use of high yielding varieties, will lead to an increased productivity in the seed market.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE COOPERATION & FARMERS WELFARE

Seeds Overview

Seed is the most important and vital input for agricultural production. In fact, it is the most cost efficient means of increasing agricultural production and productivity seeds efficacy of other agricultural inputs in enhancing productivity and production, such as fertilizers, pesticides and irrigation is largely determined by the quality of seed. Quality of seed accounts for twenty to twenty five percent of productivity. It is, therefore, important that quality seeds are made available to the farmers of the country. The Indian Seeds programme recognizes three generations of seeds, namely, breeder, foundation and certified seeds. The Department of Agriculture and Co-operation is implementing a Central Sector Scheme as 'Development and Strengthening of Infrastructure Facilities for Production and Distribution of Quality Seeds' since 2005-06 for the whole country. The objective of the ongoing scheme is to ensure production and multiplication of high yielding certified/quality seeds of all crops in sufficient quantities and make the seeds available to farmers, including those in remote areas, not easily accessible by rail/road on time and at affordable price.

Export of Seeds and Planting Materials

In order to encourage export of seeds, the procedure for export for seed has been considerably simplified. As per the current EXIM Policy, 2009-2014, exports of all seeds are free, except;

- Breeder or foundation or wild plants
- Breeder or foundation or wild plants
- onion, berseem, cashew, nux vomica, rubber, pepper cuttings, sandalwood, saffron, neem, forestry species, Red sanders, Russa Grass and tufts and Seeds of tufts.

The export of these seeds is restricted and is only allowed on case-to-case basis under licence issued by DGFT on the basis of the recommendations of EXIM Committee of Department of Agriculture and Cooperation.

Import of seeds and planting materials

In order to provide the best planting materials available in the world to the Indian farmer and to increase productivity, farm incomes and export earnings, New Policy on Seed Development, 1988 has been formulated. Import of seeds and planting materials are governed by New Policy on Seed Development, 1988. The provisions regarding import of seeds and planting material are:

- import of seeds/tubers/bulbs/cuttings/saplings of vegetables, flowers and fruits is allowed without a licence in accordance with import permit granted under Plant Quarantine Order, 2003 (PQ Order).
- Import of seeds, planting materials and living plants by ICAR, etc. is allowed without a licence in accordance with conditions specified by the Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Government of India;
- Import of seeds/tubers of potato, garlic, fennel, coriander, cumin, etc. is allowed in accordance with import permit granted under PQ Order, 2003 and amendments made their under.

Import of seeds of rye, barley, oat, maize, millet, jowar, bajra, ragi, other cereals, soybean, groundnut, linseed, palmnut, cotton, castor, sesamum, mustard, safflower, clover, jojoba, etc. is allowed without licence subject to the New Policy on Seed Development, 1988 and in accordance with import permit granted under PQ Order, 2003. A small quantity of seeds sought to be imported would be given to ICAR, or farms accredited by ICAR, for trial and evaluation for one crop season. On receipt of applications for commercial import, DAC would consider the trial/evaluation report on the performance of the seed and their resistance to seed/soil borne diseases. All importers have to make available a small specified quantity of the imported seeds to the ICAR at cost price for testing/accession to the gene bank of NBPGR.

The Department of Agriculture and Cooperation has revised the New Policy on Seed Development 1988 on 27.6.2011 to allow import of specified quantity of seeds of wheat and paddy initially for trial and evaluation purpose. Based on the results of trial for one crop season, the company may be allowed to import seeds of wheat and paddy for a period not exceeding two years subject to the conditions stipulated in the revised New Policy of Seed Development 1988.

The import of these seeds is restricted and is only allowed on case-to-case basis under licence issued by Plant Protection Adviser on the basis of the recommendations of EXIM Committee of Department of Agriculture and Cooperation. The EXIM Committee meets every month subject to tendency of proposals for import/export of seeds and planting material. Exporters/importers are required to submit 20 copies of applications for export/import in the prescribed formats. The minutes of the EXIM Committee are approved by Secretary (A&C) after which letters recommending exports/imports of seeds and planting material are sent to DGFT and PPA for necessary action.

OECD Seed Scheme

Government of India become a member of OECD Seed Scheme from 23rd October, 2008 and participates in the five varietal certification schemes viz grass and legume seeds, Crucifer seed and other oil or fiber species seed, Cereal seeds, maize and sorghum seed and vegetable seeds. Seeds OECD Seed Certification facilitates International seed trade. Joint Secretary who is in-charge of seeds, Department of Agriculture and Cooperation has been designated as National Designated Authority (NDA) and Ten State Seed Certification Agencies are declared as Designate Authority (DA) to operate OECD Seed Scheme in India. Seed Division convened various meetings, workshops, awareness programs etc., to operate the scheme from the year 2009 to 2013. Currently, 61 seed varieties from the public sector, covering 19 crops, are listed in the 2011 OECD. Seed Division has also forwarded list of 35 varieties in 6 crops belonging to private sector for inclusion in the OECD list of varieties. It is hoped that by 2013 more than 150 varieties from India will be listed in OECD list of varieties and to produce the seeds under OECD Seed Scheme for export.

FDI Policy on seed sector

As per extant policy, FDI is permitted up to 100% under the automatic route in development and production of seeds and planting material subject to certain conditions as mentioned in "Circular No. 1 of 2011: Consolidated FDI Policy" issued by Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. The permission for FDI up to 100% would encourage infusion of foreign investment into the seed sector and would also facilitate indigenous seed companies for strengthening of Research and Development activities for development of Seeds of better varieties.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

The following information is qualified in its entirety by, and should be read together with, the more detailed financial and other information included in the Draft Prospectus, including the information contained in the section titled “Risk Factors” on page no. 9 of the Draft Prospectus. In this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, any reference to the terms “We”, “Us”, “Indo US” and “Our” refers to Our Company. Unless stated otherwise, the financial data in this section is as per our financial statements prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Policies set forth in the Draft Prospectus.

COMPANY’S BACKGROUND

Our Company was originally incorporated as “Pollucid Bio-Tech Private Limited” at Junagadh on February 4, 2004, under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 vide Certificate of Incorporation issued by the Assistant Registrar of Companies, Gujarat, Dadra and Nagar Haveli. Subsequently, the name of our company was change to “Pellucid Bio-Tech Private Limited” and the fresh Certificate of Incorporation consequent upon the change of name dated January 5, 2005 was issued by the Registrar of Companies, Gujarat, Dadra and Nagar Haveli. Later on, the name of our company was changed to “Indo Us Bio-Tech Private Limited” and fresh Certificate of Incorporation consequent upon the change of name dated March 9, 2007 was issued by the Registrar of Companies, Gujarat, Dadra and Nagar Haveli. Consequently upon the conversion of our company into public limited company, the name of our company was changed to “Indo Us Bio-Tech Limited” and fresh Certificate of Incorporation consequent upon conversion from private company to public company dated January 11, 2018 was issued by the Registrar of Companies, Ahmedabad.

Our company has started its journey way back in 2004, having our own laboratory for seed testing at Junagadh. In laboratory, we used to test the proportion of Enzyme-Linked Immunosorbent Assay (“ELISA”) available in the seeds. ELISA tests are primarily used for the detection of proteins in the seeds which helps to fight against the diseases. In the initial stages, we were mere engaged in the trading of all kind of seeds and mainly agriculture seeds, vegetable seeds, oil seeds etc.

During the tenure of 2004-2011, laboratory for testing seed was mainly in Nagpur, Hyderabad and Gujarat. Our company was having laboratory with all modern imported equipments, and an image in the market was set up like “if seeds are tested and approved in the Laboratory of Indo Us, its approved/certified seed”.

As a part of backward integration, our company started In-House Research and Development (“R&D”) unit at Modasa, District – Sabarkantha (Gujarat) for research activities to produce better and different varieties of seeds. On September 23, 2011, our company had got the recognition up to March 31, 2014, for In-House R&D from Government of India, Ministry of Science and Technology, Department of Scientific and Industrial Research Technology Bhavan, New Delhi (“DSIR”).

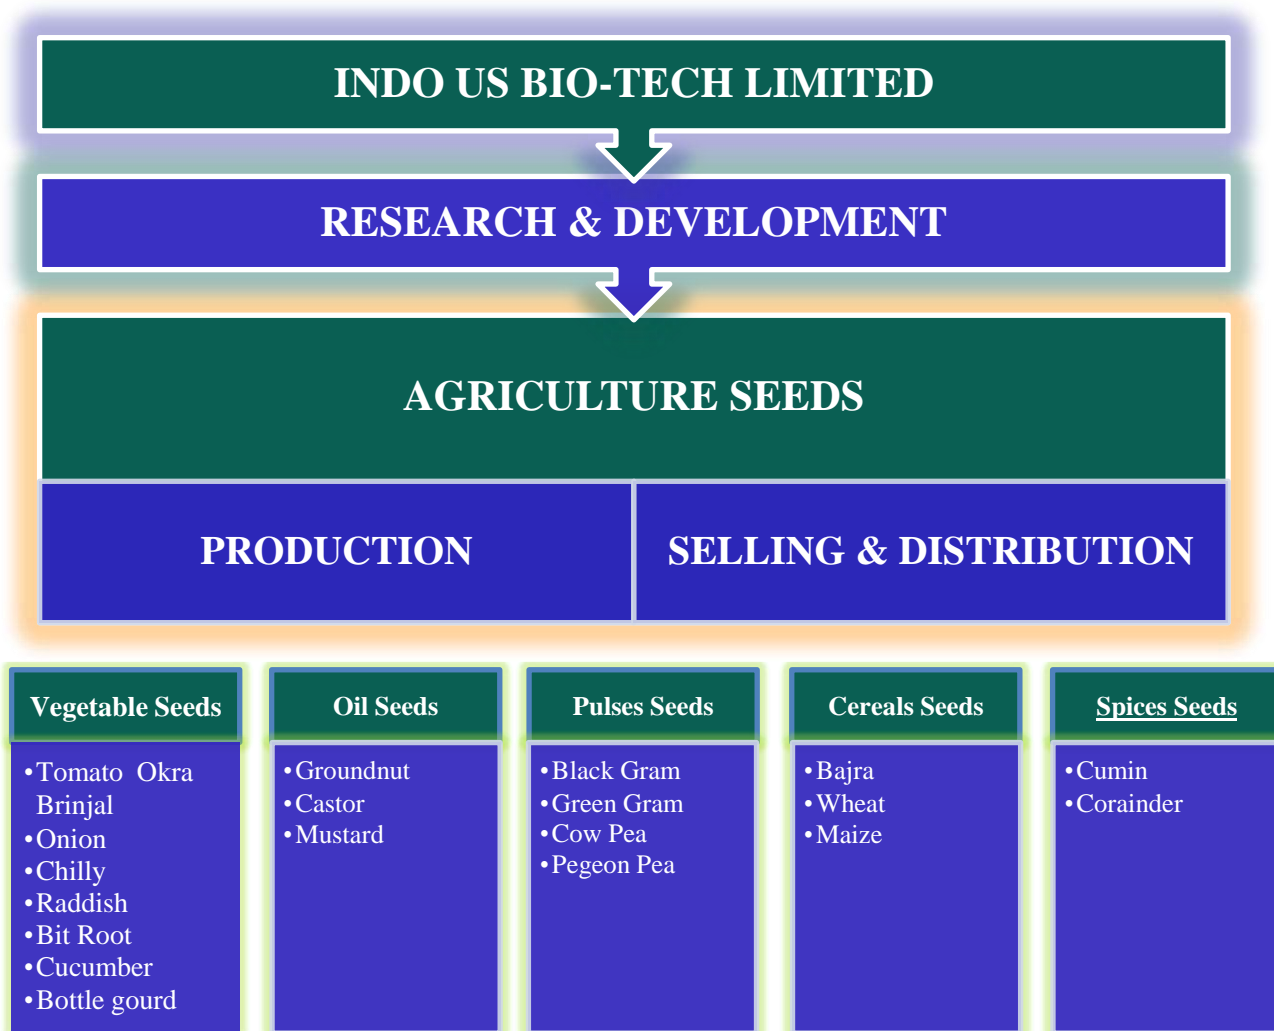

In the initial stage at our R&D unit, our company was engaged in producing different varieties of oil seeds and pulses seeds, later on our company also added vegetable, spices and cereals seeds to its basket.

In the year 2014, our company shifted its R&D unit measuring approximately 02-59-36 Hectare to carry on its research activities at Block No / Survey No. 384, 385, 383, 382, 381 and 380, Village – Bardoli Kathi, Taluka – Dehgam, District - Gandhinagar and R&D unit duly recognized by (“DSIR”). Our company is having approval for our existing R&D unit from “DSIR” vide its letter bearing no. F. No. TU/IV-RD/3279/2017 dated July 19, 2017 granting approval up to March 31, 2019.

At present our company is having collection of around 4460 varieties of germplasm in various crops. Our products are being marketed under various brands names like INDO-US 955, INDO-US 936, INDO-US 927 etc.

Our Company is 9001:2015 certified engaged in research plant, breeding products, processing and marketing of sales high performing open pollinated and hybrid agricultural seed varieties. We are the recognized seed importer from National Seeds Corporation Limited.

- The seed production is backed by a very strong in house R&D programs and R&D Activities.
- The company's well experienced team consists of head Breeders, Assistant Breeders and skilled worker to carry out breeding and R&D activities for quality seed production.

- The company maintain the germplasm of various vegetable crop, field crops and Oil & spice crops. More than 4460 varieties of germplasm being maintained at our R&D unit.

- We grow the germplasm of various crop varieties, do breeding through different breeding methods then selection & evaluation up to five generation and then after successful field trials we release the new varieties. Then we do produce foundation seeds at our own farm.

- We do contract farming by hiring the land for seed multiplication of different crop varieties. In company in its own land as well as on land (through contract farming) being used across the different climate centers to develop highly effective and differential hybrid seeds.

- We do multiplication of seed through contract farming under our strict quality control. The periodical visits takes place of seed production plots and reject the plots if not maintain as per seed production norms.

- We make efforts for enriching the seed plots with organic manners & fertilizers.
- The major highlights is to produce new varieties of high yielding, drought tolerance low use of pesticide/ insecticide as well as suitable as per varied agro climate conditions and environment.
- The produced seeds reach into the hand of end users(farmers) through our dealers after duly cleaned, proper grading/sorting in our seed processing plant with proper packing.

Hybridization:

When a plant breeder wants to hybridize between two varieties he must first gather all information about the flowers, viz., the time of flowering, the exact time when the anther and the stigma become mature for pollination, which flowers give healthy seeds, how long do the pollens remain viable, etc. He must take all precautions so that hybridization takes place only in the way he desires, precluding all chances of self- pollination and must ensure that no foreign pollen can contaminate the result.

Breeder should follow the following stages:

1. Selection, Sorting and Isolating the Parents:

- The plant breeder first selects the plant that he will use as the mother parent and keeps the male parent ready so that the anther will be ripe just at the desired time.
- If there are too many flowers on the branch of the mother parent he clips off a number of them.
- This is especially true in the cereals (wheat or rice) where there are a big number of flowers on the spike or panicle.
- In rice, about ten or twelve flowers of the same age are kept. It is necessary to isolate the female parent and, sometimes, even the male parent, by growing on isolated plots or by bagging or caging. Necessity of isolation increases with the percentage of natural cross-pollination.

2. Emasculation:

- The anthers must be plucked off the female flowers just before the anthers are ripe (anthesis) without causing injury to the flowers and, specially, the carpel.
- Care should also be taken not to break the anthers. This is easily done with a pair of fine pointed forceps in the case of larger flowers like those of tomato. Rectified spirit should be used freely in sterilizing the instruments during crossing.
- In the case of small flowers the process is rather painstaking. In ordinary cereals where the bracts are not brittle (e.g., wheat or oats) the process is simpler but it is rather different in rice.

3. Bagging:

After the flowers are emasculated they are to be kept isolated which may be done either by keeping the whole plant in a muslin cage or by enclosing the flowers in muslin or oil paper or plastic bags so that foreign pollens may not come in contact with the stigma. Usually these bags are kept till seed-setting is complete.

4. Tagging:

The emasculated and bagged flowers must be tagged by writing every step with date and time. The bagging and pollination is incomplete without tagging.

5. Pollination:

When the stigma of the emasculated flower is mature the bag is temporarily removed and the stigma pollinated by dusting with complete broken anthers or pollens from the male parent. Special study should be made as to the viability of the pollens. Flowers are bagged again after pollination.

Care must always be taken to keep the crossed flowers properly labeled or tagged. The label should be as brief as possible but complete. It should bear the names of the parents (female parent first) and, at least, a number referring to the field record book.

6. Selection and Testing of Superior Recombinants:

- This step comprises selecting, among the progeny of the hybrids, those plants that have the desired character combination. The selection process yields plants that are superior to both of the parents. These plants are self-pollinated for several generations till they come to a state of uniformity (homozygosity) so that the characters will not separate in the progeny.
- Selection is of two types - self pollinated and cross pollinated

I. Selection in Self-pollinated Crops:

The degree of cross pollination is less than 5%. There is repeated self pollination of selected plants till superior homozygous genotypes are obtained. The best one is used as new variety. The self-pollinated progeny of homozygous plant constitutes a pure line. All the plants in pure line have identical genotype. The wheat variety HUW 468 is a good example of pure line. Variation appearing later in such a pure line is due to environment.

II. Selection in Cross-pollinated Crops:

The cross-pollinated crops are heterozygous for most of their genes and their population contains plants of several different genotypes. Some of these genotypes are superior but many are inferior. Superior genotype plants are selected and are allowed to crossbreed (these plants are not allowed to self breed) so that heterozygosis is also maintained. Selection can be continued in a few successive generations of cross-pollinated crops.

7. Testing, Release and Commercialization of New Cultivars:

- The newly selected lines are evaluated for their yield and other agronomic traits of quality, disease resistance, etc.
- This evaluation is done by growing these in the research field and recording their performance under ideal fertilizer (application), irrigation, etc.
- After the evaluation in the research fields, the testing of the materials is done in the farmer's fields, for at least three growing seasons at different locations in the country, representing all the agro climatic zones.
- The material is evaluated in comparison to the best available crop cultivar. Thus the seeds of new variety are multiplied and made available to the farmers.

Germplasm collection is important and crucial to ensure consistent seed for better improvement in crop varieties in R&D.

In seed production programme, our Company grows foundation seeds at the company's leased agricultural lands. These foundation seeds are produced under strict supervision of our breeder and technical staff to maintain the quality of seeds. Breeding is the process of bringing together two specific parent plants to produce a new offspring plant which will have the desired traits and characteristics. Our Company has an adequate storage with convenient loading and unloading system which enables us to store the seeds without deterioration of quality.

The important steps towards seed production are as under:

Seed Production Process

Germplasm:

Germplasm is the complete set of genetic material of any plant species. Plant breeding involves the creation of new allelic combinations, fixing of specific combinations of alleles and selection of superior combinations of alleles resulting in superior varieties or parents for hybrid seed production. Donor or source material used for breeding crosses should be determined to be of appropriate quality with regard to genetic purity and seed borne and seed transmitted pathogens.

Nucleus Seeds

It is single plant progeny seeds having 100% genetic purity. Nucleus seed is the initial handful of pure seeds of improved variety or parental lines of hybrid plant. When a new variety of plant is released there is very little seed as only a handful of superior seeds will be selected by the breeder from individual plants. Nucleus seeds being genetically pure do not contain physical impurities. The nucleus seed is produced under strict isolation in order to avoid both genetical and physical contamination. Nucleus seed are managed with great care so that all seed produced from it remains true to the new variety. This is a most important step and is the responsibility of the plant breeder who developed the variety. The nucleus seed is not available to farmers. The next step in the chain from plant breeder to farmer is that the plant breeder develops Breeder Seed.

Breeder Seeds

Breeder seed is the progeny of nucleus seed. Generally breeder seed is produced in one stage. But if there is greater demand for breeder seed and there is low seed multiplication ratio then breeders seed can be produced in two stages, viz Breeder stage I and II. In such cases breeder seed, stage I becomes source for breeder Stage II. Breeder seed plots are subjected to joint inspection by a team consisting of crop breeder from other Agricultural Universities in the State, representative of All India Coordinated Research Projects of the crop, National Seeds Corporation, State Seeds Corporation and Divisional Seed Certification Officer. Breeder seed produced should meet all prescribed standards viz. genetic purity (depending on crops in the range of 85% to 99%), physical purity (98%).

Foundation seed

Foundation seed is the seed produced from growing breeder seed. It is produced by trained persons to maintain the genetic purity of the variety. Foundation seed is less expensive than breeder seed and is not as pure as the nucleus and breeder's seeds.

Certified / Research seed

Certified seed is produced from growing foundation, registered or certified seed. It is grown by selected farmers to maintain sufficient varietal purity. Production is subject to field and seed inspections. It is grown by selected farmers in a way that maintains genetic purity. Production of certified seeds undergoes field and seed inspections by seed certification agency to ensure conformity with standards.

Quality Control in seed production:

Quality control is quite essential to any seed development programme. Our Company thrusts on quality control at all stages of seed production from germplasm to commercial seed production so that our seeds are qualitative, yields higher productivity and are disease resistant.

Some of the quality control measures adopted by our Company during the process of seed production are as under:

➤ Offline Measure like Sample Testing for	➤ Online Measure like
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Grow out ✓ Germination ✓ Physical Purity ✓ Seed Health ✓ Biochemistry 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Moisture Content ✓ Cold ✓ Elisha ✓ Emergence ✓ Standing Seed Plots Audit ✓ Visual Inspection of Seeds ✓ Quality Check as per Norms standardized

Seed Processing and Safe storage

Post production, the seeds are brought to our processing facilities. The seeds are subjected to various stages of processing including drying, cleaning, de-weeding, screening etc. The moisture content in seeds is reduced to the optimum level in order to increase their storage life. We use certain technologies like chemical treatment and seed coating with insecticides and fungicides to ensure faster germination, qualitative and qualitative yield and disease resistant crop.

Our Company has made significant investment in establishing infrastructure for R & D, Processing, Testing, and Packing of its product. The seeds are produced by our experienced contract growers and are then processed at the processing plant at our leased farms. The seeds are processed in advanced processing plant with screening, de-stoner and gravity separation properties.

The processes adopted by our Company for seed processing are as under:

Seed Drying – The moisture content in the seed is reduced to the optimum level in order to increase the storage life.

Seed Cleaning – Seed Cleaning Process involves separation of seed mixtures from dust, chaff and undersized seeds. It also involves grading of seeds based on weight, length, shape and size.

Seed Treatment – Seeds are treated with chemicals and coated with polymers to protect seeds from deterioration, fungal attack, ageing and foster faster germination and healthy seedling development.

Quality control in Seed Conditioning

Our Company provides foundation seeds which are grown under strict supervision of our breeder. The multiplied seeds are tested in laboratory for germination and genetical purity. We continuously endeavor that our seeds meet the required quality parameters of germination, genetic purity and yield, thus maximizing profitability for farmers who are the end users of our product. We adhere to our predetermined quality standards during production as well as during processing and conditioning at our plant. We draw samples from the seed lots received and test them at seed testing laboratories and grow-out test centers (“GOT”) centers in order to conduct GOTs and other tests for quality.

The different tests/processes adopted by our Company for ensuring quality control are as follows:

- Physical Purity Test
- Moisture Test
- Germination Test
- Seed Viability Test
- Seed Health
- Vigour Test
- Genetic Purity Test/ Molecular GOT

Packing and Storage

Our Company has adequate storage capacity with very easy loading and unloading system. This facility enables us to store seeds without any deterioration of quality. Seeds are packed in different packing of 200 grams, 500 grams, 1 KG of pouches and HDPE bags etc.

Awards and Accreditations

- Excellence in Economic Development award from Mr. Sunil Shashtri for excellence in quality and to maintain seed quality.
- All India Achievers Foundation award presented by Industrial Development.
- Krishi Vigyan Seva Kharif Award 2010 given by Honorable Agriculture minister Mr. Brijendra Singh in Madhya Pradesh

Business Strategy

1. Continued Investment in R&D activities

We are of the firm belief that our future success is depend on our continued focus on breeding and other R&D activities to develop new and improved varieties. We intend to continue our investments in research and development and expand our research capabilities by investment in land, infrastructure and germplasm.

2. Continued Promotional Activities/Branding and Marketing Programmes

Promotion includes incentive offering and interest creating activities which are generally short term marketing events other than advertising, personal selling publicity and direct marketing. The purpose of sales promotion is to stimulate, motivate and influence the purchase and other desired behavioral responses of our customers. We do farmer activities likes Krushi Mela, which gave the proper guidance to farmers and demonstration of research varieties on farmer’s field. We are seasonally organizing farmers and dealers meeting including farm demonstration. We are also putting our products on TV and other media avenues for advertising and field meetings with farmers to support marketing.

3. Offering of attractive schemes to farmer with whom we entered in agreement for contract farming

We provide foundation seeds to farmer with whom we enter into seed production agreement for contract farming and provide them attractive scheme for earning. As a result of contract farming, our company does not require to make huge investment for acquisition of land in different location as land belongs to farmer and we are require to provide them foundation seeds, fertilizer, pesticides, proper training for yielding better seeds. Harvesting of seeds is done as per standards of breed/foundation seeds characteristics. Subsequently Grow out Test (“GOT”) is conducted and on successfully clearing the test seeds are loading to processing unit.

4. Broad base Distribution Network

Our company is having wide distribution network in the state of Gujarat, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Chattishgarh, Rajasthan etc. We also export to many countries namely USA, Malaysia, Africa etc through direct or Merchant Export. In addition, we are having tie up with MP State Agro Industries Development Corporation Limited for supply of our agriculture seeds. Our company also sales online agriculture seeds through Desta Mart and Amazon.

The Seeds Act defines the term "seed", as any of the listed classes of seeds used for sowing or planting i.e. seeds of food crops including edible oil seeds and seeds of fruits and vegetables, cotton seeds, seeds of cattle fodder and includes seedlings, and tubers, bulbs, rhizomes, roots, cuttings, all types of grafts and other vegetatively propagated material, of food crops or cattle fodder and jute seeds.

The Seeds Act provides for the constitution of a Central Seeds Committee for the purposes of advising the Central and State Governments on matters arising out of the administration of the Seeds Act. The Seeds Act provides for notification of certain kinds or varieties of seeds for the purposes of regulating the Quality of any kind or variety of seed to be sold for purposes of agriculture. The Seeds Act also provides for minimum limits of germination and purity with respect to any notified kind or variety of seed and the particulars which the mark or label should contain to indicate that such seed conforms to the minimum limits of germination and purity.

The Seeds Act prohibits any person, either by himself or by any other person on his behalf, from carrying on the business of selling, keeping for sale, offering for sale, bartering or otherwise supplying any seed of the notified kind or variety of seeds unless such seed is identifiable as to its kind or variety; conforms to the minimum limits of germination and purity as specified under the Seeds Act; the container of such seed bears the mark or label with the correct particulars; and he/she complies with such other requirements as may be prescribed. Similar restrictions are imposed by the Seeds Act with regards to the import and export of seed of any notified variety.

Furthermore, any person selling, keeping for sale, offering for sale, bartering or otherwise supplying any seed of the notified kind or variety of seeds, may, apply for certification to the Central Seed Certification Board constituted under the Seeds Act. The Seeds Act also appoints a Seed Inspector for the purpose of effective regulation and inspection.

The Indian Contract Act, 1872

Any commercial activity requires 'understanding' among people concerned. This understanding is often reduced into writing to give effect to the intention of the parties. Such formal versions are known as contracts. These contracts define the rights and obligations of various parties to facilitate easy performance of the contractual obligations.

The Indian Contract Act, 1872 codifies the legal principles that govern such 'contracts'. The Act basically identifies the ingredients of a legally enforceable valid contract in addition to dealing with certain special type of contractual relationships like indemnity, guarantee, bailment, pledge, quasi contracts, contingent contracts etc.

In India, Indian Contract Act, 1872 governs the Contract and its applicability extends to whole of India except State of Jammu and Kashmir. It came into force on First day of September 1872. Section 2(h) defines "Contract as an agreement enforceable by law"; in other words it is a) A Contract is an agreement; an agreement is a promise and a promise is an accepted proposal; b) An Agreement which is legally enforceable alone is a contract. Section 2(e) of the act defines the term 'Agreement' as 'every promise or every set of promises forming consideration for each other'. An Agreement is a promise or a commitment or set of reciprocal promises or commitments. An agreement involves an offer or proposal by one person and acceptance of such offer or proposal by another person. Section 2(b) defines term Promise i.e., "When a person to whom proposal is made signifies his assent thereto, the proposal is said to be accepted. Proposal when accepted becomes a promise". Section 2(d) defines Lawful Consideration as a mean for 'compensation' for doing or omitting to do an act or deed. It is also referred to as 'quid pro quo' viz 'something in return for another thing'. Section 2(b) defines Promise as "A Proposal when accepted becomes a promise." In simple words, when an offer is accepted it becomes promise. Section 2(c) defines Promisor and promisee as "When the proposal is accepted, the person making the proposal is called as promisor and the person accepting the proposal is called as promisee." An agreement enforceable by law is a valid contract. In other words it satisfies all the requirements of a valid contract as laid down in section 10. If any of the essential requirements is missing it becomes a void contract.

Financial Market Risks

We are exposed to financial market risks from changes in borrowing costs, interest rates and inflation.

Interest Rate Risk

We are currently exposed interest to rate risks to the extent of outstanding loans. However, any rise in future borrowings may increase the risk.

Effect of Inflation

We are affected by inflation as it has an impact on the operating cost, staff costs etc. In line with changing inflation rates, we rework our margins so as to absorb the inflationary impact.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT THE RESULTS OF THE OPERATIONS:

1. Unusual or infrequent events or transactions.

Up to our knowledge there have been no unusual or infrequent events or transactions that have taken place during the last three years.

2. Significant economic changes that materially affected or are likely to affect income from continuing operations.

Our business has been subject, and we expect it to continue to be subject, to significant economic changes arising from the trends identified above in 'Factors Affecting our Results of Operations' and the uncertainties described in the section entitled 'Risk Factors' beginning on page no. 9 of the Draft Prospectus. To our knowledge, except as we have described in the Draft Prospectus, there are no known factors which we expect to bring about significant economic changes.

3. Known trends or uncertainties that have had or are expected to have a material adverse impact on sales, revenue or income from continuing operations.

Apart from the risks as disclosed under Section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page no. 9 in this Draft Prospectus, in our opinion there are no other known trends or uncertainties that have had or are expected to have a material adverse impact on revenue or income from continuing operations.

4. Future changes in relationship between costs and revenues, in case of events such as future increase in labour or material costs or prices that will cause a material change are known.

Our Company's future costs and revenues will be determined by demand/supply situation, government policies.

5. Extent to which material increases in net sales or revenue are due to increased sales volume, introduction of new products or increased sales prices.

Increases in revenues are by and large linked to increases in volume of business.

6. Total turnover of each major industry segment in which the issuer company operated.

The Company is operating in various productions of vegetables seeds, fruits seeds, pulses seeds, cottons seeds and maize seeds. Relevant Industry data, as available, has been included in the chapter titled "Industry Overview" beginning on page no. 63 of the Draft Prospectus.

7. Status of any publicly announced new products or business segment.

Our Company has not announced any new product and segment, except otherwise disclosed in this Draft Prospectus.

8. The extent to which business is seasonal.

Our business is seasonal in nature. Both raw material supplies and sales are seasonal, as our business is influenced by the traditional crop seasons in India. In India, majority of the farmers depend on monsoon for cultivation. Rainfall usually occurs during Kharif season and hence, the timing and seasonality of rainfall has an impact on the business of our Company. Thus, we are subject to seasonal factors, which make our operational results very unpredictable.

We recognize revenues only upon the sale of our products. Empirically, the revenues recorded during planting and harvesting seasons are lower compared to revenues recorded during the periods following such seasons. During periods of lower sales activities, we continue to incur substantial operating expenses, but our revenues remain usually lower. Due to the inherent seasonality of our business, results of one reporting period may not be necessarily comparable with preceding or succeeding reporting periods. Sometimes, even if there is a slight change in timing of rain fall, the sales will get deferred from one reporting period to another reporting period. The sales that were supposed to take place during one financial year may get added to sales of the next financial year and therefore results of even full financial year may not necessarily be comparable to the other financial year.

9. Any significant dependence on a single or few suppliers or customers.

Our top ten customers contribute 31.68% and 21.02% of our total sales for the period ended October 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017 respectively. Out of which 12.53% was contributed by one of our group entity – “Patel Beej Nigam” for the period ended March 31, 2017.

Further, our top ten suppliers delivered 54.99% and 34.95% of the total materials purchased for the period ended October 31, 2017 and March 31, 2017 respectively. Out of which our group entities – “Indo-Us Agriseeds Private Limited” and “Patel Beej Nigam” have delivered 39.19% of total materials purchased for the period ended October 31, 2017 and “Indo-Us Agriseeds Private Limited” has delivered 28.10% of total materials purchased for the period ended March 31, 2017.

10. Competitive conditions:

We face competition from existing and potential competitors which is common for any business. We have, over a period of time, developed certain competitors who have been discussed in section titles “Business Overview” beginning on page no. 70 of this Draft Prospectus.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. Foreign investment is allowed up to 100% under automatic route in our Company.

India's current Foreign Direct Investment ("FDI") Policy issued by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, GOI ("DIPP") by circular of 2015, with effect from May 12, 2015 ("Circular of 2015"), consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DIPP. The Government usually updates the consolidated circular on FDI Policy once every Year and therefore, Circular of 2015 will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular.

The transfer of shares by an Indian resident to a Non-Resident does not require the prior approval of the FIPB or the RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the Consolidated FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the Consolidated FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by SEBI/RBI. Further, in terms of the Consolidated FDI Policy, prior approval of the RBI shall not be required for transfer of shares between an Indian resident and person not resident in India if conditions specified in the Consolidated FDI Policy have been met. The transfer of shares of an Indian company by a person resident outside India to an Indian resident, where pricing guidelines specified by RBI under the foreign exchange regulations in India are not met, will not require approval of the RBI, provided that (i) the original and resultant investment is in line with Consolidated FDI policy and applicable foreign exchange regulations pertaining to inter alia sectoral caps and reporting requirements; (ii) the pricing is in compliance with applicable regulations or guidelines issued by SEBI.
