XECH Launches Imperia Next-Gen Garment Steamer with Advanced VST Technology at Guj Gift Expo 2026

Ahmedabad, XECH Technologies, a leading manufacturer of innovative portable home appliances and consumer electronics, has announced, today launched its Imperia Garment Steamer at Guj Gift Expo 2026 in Ahmedabad. Designed to bring a more controlled and intelligent approach to everyday garment care. Imperia combines Variable Steam Throw (VST) Technology, powerful heating performance and fabric-specific settings in a premium, futuristic form.

Imperia is equipped with Variable Steam Throw Technology, allowing users to adjust steam output from 18g/min to 30g/min according to different garments and fabric types and supports both horizontal and vertical steaming. The appliance features six preset fabric modes, displayed through a colourful LCD interface, enabling users to select the appropriate setting for their garment-care requirements.

The launch in Ahmedabad holds particular relevance given the city's strong association with India's textile and garment ecosystem. Ahmedabad is a major textile hub, while Gujarat has a prominent position in India's denim and textile industry. Against this backdrop, XECH is introducing Imperia as a technology-led garment-care solution designed for consumers who want greater control, convenience and consistency while steaming their clothes.

Commenting on the launch, Pranay Punjabi, Founder & CEO, XECH Technologies, said, "Ahmedabad has a strong connection with textiles and garment manufacturing, making it a natural market for us to introduce Imperia. With this product, we wanted to rethink an everyday garment-care appliance by bringing together controlled steam, intelligent fabric settings and powerful performance. Imperia reflects our approach of making technology practical, intuitive and beautifully designed for everyday use."

The pre-booking for XECH Imperia begins today, August 12, 2026, following its launch at Guj Gift Expo 2026. The product will be officially available on the XECH website and retail channels, leading online e-commerce platforms from September 1, 2026. Priced at an MRP of Rs. 2,799, Imperia comes with a measuring cup and user manual. With Imperia, XECH continues to expand its portfolio of design-led lifestyle appliances. The company combine meaningful technology with practical everyday functionality, bringing a more refined garment-care experience to modern consumers.
