with Kapil Sharma as the duo reunited for the high-energy party track "Phurr" in "Kis Kisko Pyaar Karoon 2."

The rapper shared that working with Kapil is always effortless and filled with laughter. Speaking about their latest song, Honey Singh shared, "Kapil is a very dear friend, and doing a song for his film Kis Kisko Pyaar Karoon 2 was a lot of fun. Phurr is a total party banger, it's got that groove that'll make you want to hit the dance floor and not leave! So, let's all Phurr our way to the cinemas for Kis Kisko Pyaar Karoon 2."The foot-tapping number "Phurr" is shot in a massive stadium setting illuminated with disco lights and electrifying energy. Sung by Honey Singh and Josh Brar, the track features music produced by Honey himself, with lyrics written by Raj Brar. The song embodies the spirit of a high-voltage party anthem. The peppy number features Kapil Sharma. Tridha Choudhury, Parul Gulati and Ayesha Khan. Actress Parul Gulati opened up about reuniting with Yo Yo Honey Singh after a decade for a special song in her upcoming film "Kis Kisko Pyaar Karoon 2." Sharing her excitement about collaborating with Honey Singh after a decade, Parul described the collaboration as a nostalgic and

During every single day of shooting 'Anantha', we witnessed one miracle after another, says director Suresh Krissna

Chennai, Nov 14 (IANS) Ace director Suresh Krissna, who has now directed the spiritual feature film 'Anantha', has now disclosed that he witnessed one miracle after another during every single day of shooting the film.

For the unaware, 'Anantha', which has been directed by veteran filmmaker Suresh Krissna and produced by Girish Krishnamurthy, is an upcoming spiritual feature film featuring actors Jagapathi Babu and Suhasini Maniratnam in the lead.

Speaking at the music launch event of the film which took place recently, director Suresh Krissna said, "Words cannot express my happiness today. My heartfelt thanks to Girish for making this exciting experience, marking a full-circle moment in her career. She told IANS, "When I met Honey after so many years, it truly felt like time had stood still. We both instantly went back to those Zorawar days, the rehearsals, the laughter, the fun chaos on set." "Working with him again after ten years felt nostalgic but also very refreshing. He has the same infectious energy, the same passion for music, and it's amazing to see how much he's evolved as an artist. Shooting this song together brought back so many memories, and I couldn't have asked for a better reunion. It felt like coming full circle," added Parul Gulati.

parthi. When I stood before Baba, he looked at me and said in Telugu, 'Where have you been all these years?' and I broke down. Two years later, Baba attained samadhi. Years passed, and one morning, Baba appeared in my dream. That same day, my friend told me they had just been discussing making Baba's film with me," Suresh Krissna said. The director went on to add that soon after, producer Girish approached him and told him that they must make a film that devotees around the world would celebrate — and even those who didn't know Baba would come to know him. "I asked for three days to reflect. But the next day, at 3 AM, inspiration struck. In one hour, the entire story flowed through me — as though Baba himself was writing it. The film tells several real-life stories where Baba's presence and miracles are felt.
